Mr. Rothschild,

I appreciate the promptness of your responses. I understand your position on the insurance question and am looking into it.

In the meantime, could you provide a breakdown as I requested?

Cheers!

When you send me the name of your insurance company, I will disclose everything to them. For whatever it's worth, the bills are in the thousands of dollars and Naia will be incurring thousands of dollars more in medical expenses.

Again, please send me the name of your insurance company.

Mr. Rothschild, could you provide the out of pocket expenses to date, and any anticipated future costs?

I will also be looking into the insurance question you raised. Thank you.

Cheers!

It was an accident. It was not an intentional act. Someone who negligently causes another person to be injured is liable for any damages that result. You caused Naila's injuries by picking her up and eventually dropping her. That is why we want the name of your rental insurance company. Naila's damages are in the thousands of dollars. Without insurance, you will be personally liable for the amount of her damages. With insurance, we can easily negotiate a settlement when Naila's medical condition stabilizes. Without insurance and your cooperation, we have no choice but to file a lawsuit. We prefer cooperation but I have no idea on your desires.

So, again, I am asking for your insurance company information. If you do not have insurance, you should retain an attorney immediately as you are personally liable for potentially thousands of dollars in damages and without insurance, the compensation will have to come directly from you.

There is no need to contact Naila or her parents again. All future communications to my client should be directed through my office.

Mr. Gupta,

Our firm is representing Ms. Kenney in a claim against you for personal injuries. On November 22, 2025, you picked her up and caused her body to hit a countertop. Since this incident, she has been suffering with left thigh injuries that still exist to the present. She is constantly suffering with disabilities and pain.

We request the name of your rental insurance company. If you do not have insurance, you are personally liable for Ms. Kenney's damages. If this is true, I suggest that you retain an attorney to represent you.

I am looking forward to hearing from you promptly.
